The Snapple/HHSAA Girls Basketball State Championships tips off this week with the Division I first round regional games on Monday, Feb. 4. OIA third place Mililani is making its eighth-straight appearance – the longest for any OIA team – while Konawaena and Lahainaluna are both making its 18th-straight appearance – the longest current and consecutive appearance streak among schools. This also marks Lahainaluna's 28th all-time appearance, tying them with Punahou for the most appearances.

In the Division II tournament, BIIF runner-up Ka'u is making its first-ever appearance, while KIF champion Waimea is making its first appearance since 2007. ILH champion Hawaii Baptist is making its 11th-straight appearance – the longest of any ILH team. BIIF third place Kamehameha-Hawaii is making its 15th-straight appearance and has appeared in every Division II state tournament except the first tournament in 2004, which makes it the longest current and consecutive appearance streak in DII.
